Dear Colleagues,

I am writing to express my interest in the Secretary for the International Society for Precision Agriculture (ISPA) position from July 2024 to July 2026. My motivation for seeking this role stems from my passion for sustainable precision agriculture, a state of professional and scientific maturity, and a strong desire to contribute significantly to promoting and developing innovative agricultural practices worldwide.

With extensive agricultural sector experience and a solid project management and communication background, I bring a unique perspective and the essential skills required to effectively facilitate collaboration among our members and advance our collective goals. As Secretary, I am dedicated to ensuring clear and effective communication within the association while maintaining the integrity and accuracy of our records and documents.

Moreover, I firmly believe that precision agriculture is the future of sustainable farming and an urgent necessity to address global challenges such as food security and climate change. I am eager to collaborate with you to promote the adoption of these technologies, facilitating access to knowledge and tools that empower farmers globally to enhance efficiency and minimize environmental impacts.

I am confident that in this role, I can add significant value to our organization, improving our collaboration and knowledge sharing and strengthening our impact on the global stage.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of contributing to our society's growth and success.

Best regards.

Manuel Pérez-Ruiz
