Call for Papers: 8th Symposium on Agri-Tech Economics for Sustainable Futures

We are pleased to share the Call for Papers for the 8th Symposium on Agri-Tech Economics for Sustainable Futures: www.agritechecon.co.uk/

The symposium will take place at Harper Adams University, UK, on 15-16 January 2026, co-organised by the Global Institute for Agri-Tech Economics (GIATE) and the Harper Adams Business School, and supported by the School of Sustainable Food and Farming and the International Network for Economic Research (INFER).

Focus and Topics

We welcome high-quality research papers in the broad field of Agri-Tech Economics for Sustainable Futures, including (but not limited to):

- Sustainability in agri-food supply chains
- Productivity and efficiency in the farming sector
- Sustainable economic growth, production, and consumption
- Rural land use and sustainability valuation in agricultural systems
- Adoption and economic impacts of agri-tech
- Environmental and agricultural economics
- Digitalisation, data, and AI applications in agriculture
- Policy analysis for agri-tech and sustainability transitions
- Socio-economic impacts of agri-tech innovations

Keynote Speakers

We are delighted to announce our confirmed keynote speakers:

- Prof. Madhu Khanna - Director of iSEE; ACES Distinguished Professor in Environmental Economics, University of Illinois, USA
- Prof. Annemie Maertens - Professor of Economics, University of Sussex Business School, UK

Further keynote speakers will be announced shortly.

Paper Submission

Please submit your extended abstract (max 3 pages) or full paper (max 6000 words) using the template available here: www.agritechecon.co.uk/submit-paper.html

Authors may submit more than one paper and are expected to present or discuss at least one paper at the symposium. All submissions will undergo a fast, high-quality peer review, with notifications provided by 30 October 2025.

The symposium aims to foster an international network in agri-tech economics and sustainable futures. Participation is welcome even without a paper submission.

We would greatly appreciate it if you could share this call within your networks and with colleagues who may be interested.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Many thanks and best wishes,

Chairs of the Symposium,

#ISPAg

Country Representatives serve to help promote ISPA by championing the ISPA mission and purpose globally, in particular, in the country they represent. ISPA is growing internationally so Country Representatives remain an important position to help ISPA best serve people, groups, governments and others, globally connecting them to science and experts.

Please join us in thanking ISPA Country Representative from Australia, Dr. Patrick Filippi.

If you are interested in becoming a Country Representative, please email info@ispag.org with your bio highlighting your experience in precision agriculture and your CV. ISPA requires that all Country Representatives are current members of the society. To become a member, please complete the membership form.

Precision Agriculture Definition

Precision Agriculture is a management strategy that gathers, processes and analyzes temporal, spatial and individual plant and animal data and combines it with other information to support management decisions according to estimated variability for improved resource use efficiency, productivity, quality, profitability and sustainability of agricultural production.

The International Society of Precision Agriculture (ISPA) is a non-profit professional scientific organization.

The mission of ISPA is to advance the science of precision agriculture globally.
